compared to the corresponding period of the last three years and the reasons for its decline; if any;

(d) what is the amount of claims paid to the exporters by the ECGC for each month since January, 1984 and how much of the paid claims in 1984 and the previous years is yet to be recovered;

(e) what is the amount written off as unrecoverable since 1982 till June, 1984; and

(f) what are the details of the scheme in operation for insurance cover to Indian exports to Nigeria and the changes made since December, 1983, if any?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND IN THE DEPARTMENT OF SUPPLY (SHRI NIHAR RANJAN LASKAR): (a) Total dues from Nigeria for payment towards Indian exports (both insured and uninsured) till December, 1983 amounted to approximately Rs. 66 crores. Of these, Rs. 24.59 crores represented the insured dues.

Insured amount of payment due till June, 1984, including pending claims, was Rs. 34.89 crores. Figures of uninsured dues for 1984 are not available.

(b) The oldest pending dues are from 1978. Negotiations for recovery of Indian dues are being held both at the levels of Government and financial institutions.

(c) Value of exports covered by ECGC:

(Rs. in crores)

Period	1981	1982	1983	1984
Jan.—June	12.19	16.44	11.11	10.55

The reason for decline in the value of exports covered is the highly restrictive import policy followed by the Government of Nigeria.

(d) Amount of claims paid to the exporters since January, 1984:

(Rs. in Lakhs)

January 1984	14.17
February	11.15
March	15.51
April	12.77
May	38.69
June	15.35
	127.64

Total outstandings for recovery in respect of transfer delay claims paid is Rs. 652.24 lakhs.

(e) Rs. 29.47 lakhs have been written off as unrecoverable dues from 1982 to June, 1984.

(f) Since December, 1983 ECGC has provided insurance cover on a case to case basis for exports to Nigeria. With effect from 1-1-1984, insurance has been restricted by ECGC to issue of transfer guarantee only in favour of Indian Banks.
